Dear Parents,

It's the end of term already. The term has flown past so quickly. Before we know it, it will be the end of the year.

Some things to know about this week.

No homework will be given this week, except for one sheet of spelling to learn for this week's test. This sheet does not have to be returned. Writing out the list each night will help the children learn the words.

Thank you for your assistance in getting the homework completed and the books returned each week. There has been an enormous improvement in this area.

I will keep the books at school ready for next term. Please encourage your child to continue with nightly reading throughout the holidays. Research shows that avid readers are competent across the curriculum.

Friday is Step-a-thon day. Students are encouraged to wear “sporting team” outfits. Don’t forget your $5. Parents are very welcome to attend at no extra cost.

I’ve been reading the book "Matilda" by Roald Dahl to the class each day over the last couple of weeks. We are on target to having it completed this week. I'd like to show the children the movie based on the book this Friday to conclude the learning.

The movie "Matilda" has a rating of PG due to mild violence.

School regulations require parental permission to watch this movie. If you agree to your child watching the movie please indicate on the permission note below.

Please note that without permission your child will not be able to watch the movie.

Thanks

Jo East

Please complete and return to Mrs East by Friday 18th September.
